Little Frankie Stoner is recovering nicely from the burn he received two weeks ago.

Born, Tuesday, December 10, 1895, in Port Huron, to Mrs. Farr Scott, (nee Gertrude Beers), a daughter.

Rooms over Grant Holden's drug store are being fitted up and will be occupied by Dr. Will H. Gowan.

Annual convention of the St. Clair county Sunday School Association at Port Huron today and tomorrow.

Married at Sanilac Centre, December 2d, by Rev. Wm. Coulter, John Gorman, of Fremont, and Agnes M. Sholto, of Yale.

Family bibles, Catholic and Protestant, English and German, in fine Morocco bindings, at the book auction McKenna block.

To Rent.—A good house and lot on Jones street. Hard and soft water and wood shed in connection with house. For further particulars call on D. McArthur, Yale.

The person who disturbed the congregation last Sunday by coughing is requested to call on Grant Holden and get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar (50c), which always gives relief.

Strayed.—To inclosure of Orley Stark, 3 1/2 miles west and 2 1/2 miles south of Yale, on or about November 1st, four calves. Owner will please call, prove property, pay charges and take away.

The Yale Whist Club met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Wallace on Monday evening and enjoyed a very pleasant time. The next meeting will be held at the residence of Steve Windsor.

A strenuous effort is being made to reorganize the Yale Brass Band. New members are joining every day, and ere long they will have acquired sufficient "brass" and "lip" to assure them abundant success.

B. R. Noble will make, before Christmas, his annual present of flour to the widows, poor people and ministers. B. R. says that next year the flour supplied will be made by the Yale Milling Co. and will be of the finest quality.

Dr. Warner Cornell, of the firm of Drs. Warner & E. A. Cornell, eye, ear, nose and throat specialists of 229 Huron Ave., Port Huron, will be at the Repley House on the last Friday of each month. His next visit will be Friday, December 27th.

Carl Maiden is a first-class fellow, a good singer, and is chorister at M. P. church. He sings for "sweet charity's sake" and "makes faces" for a living. He is manager of Maiden & Co.'s photography here. They are advertising great reductions in prices this week. See their ad.

For rheumatism I have found nothing equal to Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It relieves the pain as soon as applied. J. W. Young, West Liberty, W. Va.

The prompt relief it affords is alone worth many times the cost, 50 cents. Its continued use will effect a permanent cure. For sale by Will Lennon.

Our old friend, R. S. Bennetts, of Tacoma, Wash., sends us $2.00 for subscription to Expositor, 1895-96, and in the letter he has this to say: "Thanking you for all the good news we have received through the Expositor of the past and hoping the same may continue we wish you and your paper success for the new year, 1896."

—Thanks.

Era Taylor and Lizzie Hutchinson, of Buel, are one until death, divorce, or something else. They came to Yale Wednesday, December 11, armed with a marriage license, witnesses, and all other necessary equipment for a grand wedding, and called at the M. P. parsonage where Rev. Cooper performed the ceremony with grace and alacrity, demonstrating that he really desires to participate in such occasions—a government V. you know.

An exchange blandly remarks: The girl who indulges in the dizzy waltz will hear with interest that the heads of society have decided that sitting out a waltz this winter will be more fashionable than dancing—the only difference is you sit instead of dance.

The man's right arm is around the girl's waist, while his left hand holds her right. Her head is placed lovingly on his shoulder, and all you have to do is listen to the music. Now that is something like it. It is a nuisance to have to gallop a mile or so in order to get a hug or two. A room full of people sitting around on sofas hugging to music is more to our notion.

Buy your holiday goods of Grant Holden.

Mrs. A. E. Jackson who has been seriously ill is slowly recovering.

The young people of the village are enjoying the skating on the creek.

Teachers bibles, flexible covers at the book auction at unheard of low prices, McKenna block.

The book auctions are running in full blast afternoons and evenings and lots of books are being sold.

Advertising is sometimes called "blowing," but it must be remembered that wind makes full sails.

Buy a box of those hand-made creams and chocolates of Grant Holden. They are the finest in the land.

Ella Turner is moving her millinery stock from Avoca to Yale and will occupy the McPherson building.

Must go! Everything in trimmed goods during holidays must go without regard to cost. Mrs. Jas. Brown.

Encyclopedias, histories, dictionaries, biographies, atlas of the world at the book auction for short time only.

Mr. Levi and family, of Toronto, Ont., moved in Jonathan Tice's house on the farm north and east of here last week.

J. M. Palmer, music dealer, has leased the Mills building, next door north of Wm. Scott's bakery, for a term of years and is fitting it up in first-class order.

On many farms the weather wears out more tools than use, and wastes more food than all the stock on the place. Protect your tools, your crops and your stock.

Township Treasurer George Middleton will be at the Repley House every Saturday during December to receive taxes. Pay your taxes in December and save the extra percentage.

The Sanilac County Search-Light, of Carsonville, the only Populist paper in the "Thumb" has suspended publication because of lack of support and trouble between the proprietors.

Cards are out announcing a grand New Year's Ball in Michaels' Hall, Yale, Wednesday evening, January 1, 1896, to which the public are invited.

The best of ball room music will be in attendance. Bill, only $1.00. Come one, come all, both great and small, and have a good time at Michaels' ball.

Geo. W. Bell, auctioneer, will sell for the undersigned at public auction on the premises 1 1/2 miles south of Del Brown's Corners in Kenosha township, on Saturday, Dec. 21, commencing at one o'clock sharp all of his stock, farm implements and tools, household goods, etc. This will be a bona fide sale. Mrs. Thos. Reidy.

Died, on December 5, 1895, at the home of her parents on the Owens farm north and west of Yale, Winnifred, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hudie. The funeral was held on Sunday, the 8th, from the house to Elmwood cemetery where the remains were laid to rest. Elder Wagner officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Hudie wish to thank the many friends and neighbors who were so kind to them during their sad bereavement.

Col. Robert G. Ingersoll was interviewed at Minneapolis, Minn., on Tuesday, about the 3,000 prayers offered for him on Thanksgiving day. When asked if he believed in the efficacy of these petitions, he said: "Oh, we will have to wait and see what will be done. I suppose that God is busy yet with the people's prayers of Thanksgiving of last week, and has not got around to that yet. If these prayers are effective then the Endeavors ought to go after Grover Cleveland. His message reads like he needed it."

This life is full of changes, the last change in the mercantile world in Yale is the purchasing of J. C. Holden's dry goods and grocery business by T. H. Parkinson, who has moved his stock of goods from the Lutz block to the Holden block. He now has one of the largest and most varied stocks in Yale and will, by keeping honest goods at reasonable prices, endeavor to please a large patronage. J. C. Holden will occupy the north store in the Holden block with a large stock of clothing and gents' furnishings, and as in the past, will enjoy a large trade. Success to both gentlemen and may they ever prosper.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought sure I would lose him. I had seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Will Lennon.

I have for sale at a bargain a swell box cutter in good condition. Also I would like to rent the barn on my lot on Mechanic street. For terms and particulars call on or address Mrs. Eysa Black, Yale.

Clarence McLean had a tony rig last Sunday—that is, until about 6 p. m. Clarence came out with flying colors in the afternoon and after picking up his best girl started for the Menominee church in Lynn. Clarence's intentions were the very best. He didn't intend "to do a thing" but show those Lynn natives just the proper thing in sleigh-ride outfits. But "man proposes and Providence disposes." Merrily the bells jingled and happily beat the young hearts behind the music, until in an unguarded moment the faithful equine strayed from the "straight and narrow" highway. Clarence's attentions being somewhat divided he accidentally drew the wrong line when—crack!—bang!—the cutter struck a fence rail culvert and

First a shiver, then a thrill. Then something decided like a spill. And the couple were sitting on a rock. Half past six by the meeting house clock. Clarence thought of an earthquake shock.

This is quite a ways after Whittier but expresses things somewhat. The "one horse shay" was tied and wired together and the disconsolate sleigh-riders wended their way home with the wreck. When some folks go sleigh-riding it would pay them to hire a driver even if he is a little in the way.

Port Grape Wine for the Sick.

"We can confidently recommend Speer's Port Grape Wine, a superior article of wine for the sick and debilitated. The vineyards and cellars are at Passaic, N. J."—Medical Review.

No Brandy is better than Speer's "Climax" of 1876.

Yale Again on Pine Root Cough Syrup.

Yale, July 15, 1895.

T. F. Holden, Imlay City, Mich.:

I hereby certify that I have used the Pine Root Cough Syrup in my family for some time and find it as recommended. It is the best cough medicine I ever used in throat or lung trouble. Yours resp'y. N. S. Connell.

For sale by Grant Holden.
